PRESIDENT TAFT'S SPEECH.

President Taft's five-day trip to the Middle West ended yesterday, and he left St. Louis late last night for Washington, where he is scheduled to arrive tomorrow morning.

At the luncheon of the Business Men's League late yesterday afternoon, President Walker Hill praised him for his appointments of Lunt and Hughes to the Supreme Court bench.

Mr. Taft launched into a vigorous speech in which he paid his respects to Bryan for reported criticism of Governor Hughes, and declared the "canon of the demagogue" and the "disposition of public journals" to make unjust charges against men in public life.

"All I am appealing for is justice and a square deal," said the president. "I am especially for myself; for indeed, I am in a position where I can get along better than some of the rest without it. But I am appealing for justice in dealing with all classes."

The president declared that he held the appointment of men to the Supreme Court bench as the most sacred of his duties.

"To me," said the president, "a lawyer, the Supreme Court of the United States is the most sacred thing that we have in this government, and the appointment of men to that bench is the highest and most sacred function that the executive has to perform."

"Now I do not like to be invidious in my remarks, or to quote what may have been a misquotation, but I did hear or see a criticism of one appointment, on the ground, as I understand it, that the appointee was not an impeccable foe of wealth and corporations. I think perhaps that criticism has been misunderstood, and that the utterer of it did not intend to give it the meaning that, thus stated, it seems to have."

"I believe that all, democrats and republicans, republicans and insurgents, who are patriotic citizens, and we all are that, are in favor of having men upon that bench who are foes of nothing but what is wrong and are in favor of equal justice to everyone, whether that be an organization of men doing business under the law and using the instrumentality of a corporation, or the humblest citizen struggling with his hands to earn a livelihood for his family."

"I do not mean to say that men by their habits of life may not acquire a bent or a prejudice in one direction or another, and that it isn't wise to select for the highest tribunal men who have not such a bent and who have not in their make-up the danger or prejudice to one interest or against another. But I do mean to say that there is in the public journals, and in what I may call the canon of the demagogue, a disposition to charge that kind of a bent in favor of corporate wealth and corporate greed and corporate monopoly when there is no fact on the charge at all."

"This assumption of peculiar honesty manifested by class declaration and the stirring up of class spirit is something that ought to be deprecated in our republic or else it will lead to great danger. We ought to take up the discussion of public questions and discuss their effect with just candor and not have our minds diverted by charges of prejudice and corrupt motives; I say charges utterly unsupported by evidence of calm consideration."

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Sold by W. F. Orelight & Co., and Richard Gibbson.

THE WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC.

Harry Levenson, who is under indictment for selling young girls into lives of shame, told the district attorney in New York yesterday that there are at least three "stockades" in New York, in each of which from five to ten young girls are kept ready night and day for instant delivery wherever they may be wanted.

Little effort, said Levenson, is made to recruit women of the street. The stockades are filled from the host of young girls who are unhappy at home, or who live narrow lives on their own earnings, and long for leisure, good clothes, gaiety and freedom from restraint. Well-dressed women make it a business to frequent cheap restaurants, moving picture theaters, sentimental matinees and the bargain counters to single out such cases, and first winning attention with an invitation to dinner, then describe the ease and pleasure of the alternative they propose.

The girl delivered to the stockade, it then becomes the business of the proprietor to place his merchandise. It was in this end of the traffic, Levenson told the district attorney, that he was a specialist. His business was to find a house where the girl was wanted. The house held the stockade-keeper a jump sum and allowed Levenson a 10 per cent commission on the girl's earnings. He and others like him kept in touch with their charges, he said, and often transferred them from house to house. He had little to do with recruiting. That

TIZ-For Sore Feet

Tired, Aching, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet? Corns, Callouses or Bunions? Use TIZ. It's Sure, Quick and Certain.

You will enjoy using TIZ. The most pleasant remedy you ever tried and moreover it works. At last here is instant relief and a lasting, permanent remedy for sore feet. No more tired feet. No more aching feet. No more swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more corns. No more bunions. No more callouses, no matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use TIZ.

TIZ is totally unlike anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous excretions which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely close up the pores. TIZ cleanses them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists 25 cents per box or direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dodge Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

was almost wholly in the hands of women, who found it easier to get a hearing.

Levenson said he began as a salesman of women's raincoats. It happened that most of his customers were former models of disreputable houses, and as he learned more of the life, he dropped selling clothes and took to trading in the homogeneity that wore them. His first met George A. Miller, the government agent in the case, he said, about three weeks ago in a Tenderloin cafe. Miller won his confidence and told him that they were in the same line of work. "Mrs. Miller from the West" was introduced, who complained of the scarcity of girls. Levenson introduced two of his own that he had picked up as a side line. Miller looked the girls over, accepted them, paid for them and he was subsequently delivered in Atlantic City. Then Levenson was arrested.

A touch of rheumatism, or a twinge of neuralgia, whatever the trouble is, Chamberlain's Liniment drives away the pain at once and cures the complaint quickly. First application gives relief. Sold by W. F. Orelight & Co. and Richard Gibbson.

After a year's absence Walter Rogers went to the home of Edwin Trotter, the father of his wife Ethel, in Youngstown, Ohio, yesterday and attempted to drag her from the house. She resisted, when Rogers shot her in the head, fired a bullet into Trotter's chest and then shot himself in the mouth. As he sank to the ground Trotter shot Rogers in the head. All were taken to a hospital where Rogers died within a few minutes. Trotter will recover.
